

CODDENHAM VILLAGE HISTORY CLUB

A talk by the ever popular PIP WRIGHT on a Suffolk "craft"

The Coddendam Centre

OCTOBER 21st at 7.30 pm

Members free - non members £3

George Ruffels, later to be known as Joe Whistlecraft died in 1960. Convicted over a hundred times, mainly for poaching, he was one of a notorious family who, nevertheless, are fondly remembered by many who knew them in Rickinghall and Hinderclay in Suffolk where they lived.